

Agriculture Education Day Celebrated at UHF Nauni

Dr YS Parmar University of Horticulture and Forestry celebrated 'Agriculture Education Day' at the University campus located at Nauni on 3rd December. The event is celebrated each year in the memory of India's first agriculture minister and President Dr. Rajendra Prasad.

The Directorate of Extension Education and Student Welfare Department of the university, jointly organized the event, which was attended by 60 farmers and students. An essay writing and poster making competition was also held for the participating students.

Dr Rakesh Gupta, Student Welfare Officer of the University was the chief guest on the occasion. In their talks, various speakers including Dr SR Dhiman, Dr Naveen Sharma and Dr Meena Thakur dwelled into the different aspects of agriculture education. In his address, the Chief Guest asked the students and farmers to look at agriculture as means of meaningful employment. The Pradhan of Nauni village panchayat, Baldev Thakur, also shared his views on the occasion.

In essay writing, Pankaj Thakur bagged the first spot with Sarvesh Chaudhary and Dipak Sharma at second and third positions respectively. In poster making competition, Shilpa Sharma stood first with Gauri Sood and Stuti Sharma bagging the next two prizes.