

Patriotic fervour marks Independence Day celebrations

The 72nd Independence Day was celebrated with patriotic fervour and gaiety at the Dr YS Parmar University of Horticulture and Forestry, Nauni. The celebrations commenced with Dr HC Sharma, UHF Vice Chancellor and Chief Guest of the function unfurling the tricolour at the university campus. All the statutory officers, head of all departments, faculty, staff and students of the university participated in the event. The flag hoisting was followed by an impressive march past by the NCC cadets and NSS volunteers of the university.

In his address, the Chief Guest recalled India's glorious history and paid rich tributes to the freedom fighters for their selfless sacrifice and struggle for the independence of the country. He emphasized that the youth should understand the true meaning and importance of freedom, which came our way through years of sacrifices made by our forefathers. He urged the students and staff to be dutiful and responsible citizens in order to take the nation to greater heights and appealed to imbibe and carry forward the ideals of our rich cultural heritage.

A colourful cultural extravaganza of soul-soothing dance performances and melodious songs by the students and staff of the university, added to the patriotic feel of the day. The Chief Guest also awarded the performers on the occasion.

